

PAUL CROWLEY MEDIATION

P.O. BOX 963
HOOD RIVER, OR 97031
(541) 386-7729
pgcrowley@earthlink.net

RESUME OF THE HON. PAUL G. CROWLEY (ret.)

PROFESSIONAL:

2014 to the present: Oregon State Court Plan B Judge and private mediator.

1998 to 2014: Circuit Court Judge, Seventh Judicial District, including two terms as Presiding Judge.

2004 to 2005: Chair of the Oregon Judicial Department's Special Task Force on the Future of Technology in Oregon Courts, which led to the implementation of eCourt.

1991 to 1998: District Court Judge for Hood River County in the Seventh Judicial District, including one term as Presiding Judge.

1987 to 1991: Associate at the Hood River based law firm of Pitcher & Wright. He provided indigent defense services with a heavy caseload on a variety of cases ranging from Class A felonies to misdemeanors to juvenile dependency and delinquency matters. Crowley also carried a separate appellate caseload.

1985 to 1987: Associate at the Salem law firm of Allen, Stortz, Fox & Susee, a general practice firm. Crowley's caseload primarily involved appellate practice, business law, representation of creditors, and criminal defense.

EDUCATIONAL:

1985: Willamette University College of Law, J.D.

1981: Successfully passed the Certified Public Accountants' examination (unlicensed).

1981: Northern Illinois University, B.S. in Accountancy, minor in English.

PERSONAL:

Crowley has lived in Hood River County since 1987. He and his wife, Susan, have lived in the city of Hood River since 1991.

He has been an active member of the Hood River County Crag Rats, the oldest mountain search and rescue organization in North America, since 1998. He has served in all of the organization's officer positions. He has achieved Life Membership status by summiting Mount Rainier, Mount Adams, Mount Hood, Mount Jefferson, the North Sister, the Middle Sister and the South Sister.

He has belonged to the Hood River Rotary Club since 1991, is a member of the service committee, and has chaired the club's dictionary program for over 20 years.

His personal interests and activities include writing, playing Bluegrass music (clawhammer banjo and fiddle), mountain climbing, skiing, hiking, biking, kiteboarding, other water based sports, and gardening badly.